Senate District 28 - Guidelines

This document has been prepared to show where changes to current Senate District 28 are unnecessary and do not conform to the 2011 Redistricting Guidelines of the Senate.

Based upon the requirements of Federal Law under the 14th amendment, a Good Faith Effort is required in constructing districts to include the respecting of political subdivision boundaries and preserving the core of prior districts in this redistricting process.

Senate District 28, as currently drawn, grew in the same relative proportions according to the 2010 Census results and is within the guidelines from a deviation and black voter percentage perspective. Senate District 28 as currently configured has been approved on several prior occasions by the Federal Courts. Therefore, Senate District 28 should remain in its current configuration and Senate District 28 in its current form is part of the record for the 2011 Senate Redistricting process.

Senate District 28 has traditionally served as its primary core, a mostly rural traditional Pee Dee area community with basic common interests. The rural area in District 28 has traditionally had a strong voice in this district. Because of growth in the coastal area and the failure of the proposed staff plan to maintain common economic interests and keep a common core intact, the rural voice as well as the voice of minorities in District 28 will be diminished.

The staff plan of the Senate Judiciary proposed for Senate District 28 has reduced the number of rural VTD boxes and significantly increased the population along the coastal region which has radically shifted the constituent base and caused a split in the core interests of District 28.

In Horry County, the communities of interest have to be given consideration. Everyone along the coast, especially east of the Intracoastal Waterway have mutually aligned interests and should have their representation grouped together. The more rural areas west of the Intracoastal Waterway and into Dillon, Marion and Marlboro Counties have significantly different interests than those along the coast and have been served very well with the traditional boundaries of District #28 as currently configured.

The staff plan proposed by Judiciary has separated highly compatible interests along the coast of Horry County. For example, the coastal area from the south side of Horry County all the way to Hilton Head is represented by two Senators for the entire 150 plus mile section. In contrast, the significant economic interest of tourism for the 30 plus miles of Horry County from Surfside to the North Carolina line is represented by three different Senate districts with the primary Myrtle Beach District only serving approximately five miles of beach area.

Therefore I have proposed changes to the Senate Judiciary's subcommittee proposal in order to preserve communities of interest and maintain constituent consistencies in District 28 which are strong considerations within the Senate's redistricting guidelines.

Thank you for your consideration.

2000 Census-US 2011

Communities of interest-approved by courts

Media approved by federal courts

Highways approved by federal courts

BVAP in 2010 as 2000 or slightly decreased.

District approved twice by federal courts - has +/- 101,000 population now typical size 2011 senate district

The plan essentially serves as a segregating of our state. Black and white democratic votes have been taken away from Senate 28 and given to other Senators to maintain BVAP levels at a time when the percentage of black voters has decreased.

Border N.C. state line and south by Atlantic Ocean

District 28 did not need to gain or lose population in 2011 remap

When I was first able to get into remap room, all the districts around me had already been redrawn- no option for input in plans

The precincts left in district 28 split communities of interest and decreased black voting impact

The remaining district 28 also makes it more difficult for an incumbent to be reelected in political considerations

District 28 located in NE corner of state has all the factors to be left alone in 2011 remap. Similar to districts 1 & 2 in Oconee and Pickens counties in opposite corner of the state

For the record, I will insert this statement along with updated map in the Senate Journal.

ACTING PRESIDENT PRESIDES

At 11:00 A.M., Senator LARRY MARTIN assumed the Chair.

Senator FORD spoke on the Bill.

Remarks by Senator FORD

Gentlemen of the Senate, I have been around a lot and I have seen a lot and I was very happy that the Senate chose me to be on this subcommittee.

The shocking thing about this whole process, for about at least six visits over the past year I have attended conferences in Washington, D.C. with all kinds of groups around the country. Everybody's primary concern was reapportionment in America and what would happen in legislative and Congressional districts and House districts. Almost everybody was concerned. I'm talking about, Democrats now and everybody was concerned, Senator COURSON. I mean there was concern because with the present makeup of the country and the present philosophy of the country, without strong leadership, a lot of Democrats and a lot of African Americans could have been wiped out from public service. Even those who come by the Voting Rights Act could have been wiped out if that was possible.

Now, I don't know about the rest of the country, but I think that this State owes a lot of gratitude to the leader of the Senate at this point, Senator GLENN McCONNELL of Charleston. The reason being is this -- we have 19 members of the Senate who are Democrats. The reality is that's not enough to stop anything. It's enough to boil or slow a process down. For example, let's say we had weak leadership -- it reminds me of some Baptist preachers. Those with strong leadership prosper and those with weak leadership, stand still, stagnate and don't grow. A good example is my friend to the right, Senator Jackson. He exhibits strong leadership. And because of that leadership, he's got the largest church in South Carolina and I think it will pay all of y'all well to at least visit one or two times. If you visit one time, you're hooked. You're going to have to go back for more.

If you look at the electorate in these districts -- there are 46 different attitudes, 46 different concepts of life and one man stands tall with those 46 leaders. That's some amazing stuff, Senator PEELER. That's amazing stuff because this process could have easily broken down. The staff was wonderful. They attended every public hearing and at each public hearing, for example, we heard all kinds of stuff. Sometimes, I don't know how I kept my composure. I kept control because, Senator PEELER, we heard stuff that were fighting words. But we didn't say a word because our leader said we needed to listen to the public, we didn't need to get bogged down and debate anybody. We listened to what the public said, but we heard some rough stuff. You know, when I was coming up, man, the kind of stuff I heard I'd be glad to get in a rumble, but I was cool. I'm sure Senator McCONNELL was shocked and the staff was shocked that I didn't said a word. I stood tall. I took it like a man, you might say.

Gentlemen, I want South Carolina to follow the example of the Senate of South Carolina. We have a new Governor and everybody was hoping that our Governor would make it. I'm hoping that she would follow the lead of the South Carolina Senate because of the kind of leadership that we have in here and the kind of brotherhood we have in here is amazing. All of us are from different walks of life. In 1965, I was arrested as a young kid -- at 19-years old -- and I could have been killed. Now in 2011, I'm alive and a member of this body originally from Louisiana. That's some amazing stuff. There's no bitterness in here. Everybody gets along like brothers. I just want everybody to know that in South Carolina.

I'm saying this really to let the Justice Department know that I may not know what's going on in the rest of the country. I may not know what's going on in the rest of the South. But, I know as an experienced Civil Rights leader we did reapportionment better than any person, any Senate in the world. Years back in history, the present and the future can't do it any better than we did. Our leader was able to bring gentlemen together -- even though some of them disagree with their districts -- he brought us together and we were able to work this out. Yesterday we got 46 votes, I think, for second reading on our Senate Bill. In the Judiciary Committee, we got 23 votes to report the Bill out.

Also, while I'm up here, I'd like to commend the Senator from Charleston, Senator CAMPSEN. I mean, what he did was noble. I don't even know if I could have done what he did in that the gentleman accepted a district, being a part of the majority party, knowing that a lot of Republicans throughout the State and throughout the Union wanted to just dominate every reapportionment in the country. Senator CAMPSSEN accepted a district. He might be responsible for saving at least two Democratic districts. I know a lot of people don't want to hear that, but I'm talking about you, man, and the fact that you did a noble job in accepting a district that I don't know if I would accept. You're talking about 116 miles. I was in the boat the past week. I drove his district -- I mean that I was in a boat and I went from the bottom of the State over in Beaufort County all the way to the top close to Dillon County -- yeah, close to Dillon County. And that whole district was Senator CAMPSSEN's and Senator CLEARY. That's amazing stuff for them to accept that district, Senator COURSON -- especially in the heart of the Confederacy in 2011.

When the Republicans had the power to just run roughshod over this body and all over the State, y'all came together as true South Carolinians and the whole State got to be proud of us. I just wanted to commend my leader from Charleston, Senator McCONNELL, because not too many people existing could have brought that coalition together and brought the Senate together like that.

So, I don't know if I'm out of order or not, but I would like everybody to stand and give my leader -- our leader -- a round of applause.

Thank you.
